

I am deeply concerned that our local politicians are ignoring what their counterparts have done regarding this issue in the rest of the uk. It will have major implications for medical defence/ protection and are they willing to fund or support these issues because as individual practitioners we cannot afford to pay more during a yind when we are already short staffed and pressured beyond belief due to a failing underfunded and understaffed NHS and ongoing pandemic